Church Teaching

Jesus' relationship with his disciples.

Talking to Jesus as a friend.

God is kind, understanding, loving and gentle, always ready to forgive and never changes.

Changing, saying sorry and being forgiven.

Forgiving others.

Key Questions

- Who are your friends?
- Why are they your friends?
- Are you anyone's friend?

Prayer

I have chosen the way of faithfulness; I set your ordinances before me. I cling to your decrees O' Lord; let me not be put to shame. I run the way of your commandments, for you enlarge my understanding. Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes, and I will observe it to the end. Give me understanding that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart.

Amen.

Jesus and his friends worked very hard. They travelled on rough, dusty roads to towns and villages all over the country.

All day long they told the people in the villages and the towns the Good News of God's love for everyone.

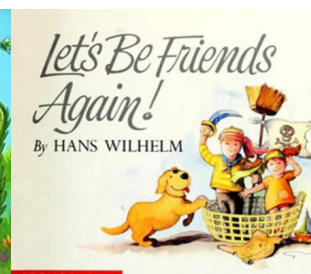

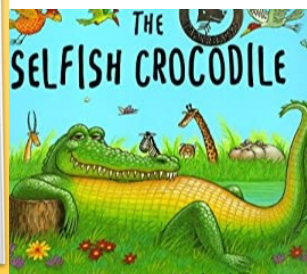

Sometimes they had to walk a very long way to get from one village to another.

They answered lots of questions that people asked them about God, sometimes very hard ones.

In the evening, they felt very tired. Sometimes they all went to a quiet, lonely place to eat, to share with each other what had happened during the day, to rest, to be quiet and still.

John 15:15

I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you.

Prior knowledge

That everyone has good news, and that Pentecost is the celebration of the Good News of Jesus
